

RRFSS Fact Sheet—RECREATIONAL TRAILS COMPARISON BY YEAR

Data Collection Period:

March to December 2006 versus March to December 2008

Sample Size, N= 1811

Interpretation:

- In 2006, seventy-one percent (71.0%) of Oxford County residents indicated knowing of recreational trails in Oxford County, compared to 76.6% who indicated the same in 2008.
- The proportion of residents who indicated knowing of recreational trails in Oxford County was significantly higher in 2008 compared to 2006.
- In 2006, 51.7% of residents that knew of recreational trails in Oxford County indicated using them in the last 12 months, compared to 60.5% who indicated the same in 2008.
- The proportion of residents who indicated using recreational trails in Oxford County in the previous 12 months was significantly higher in 2008 compared to 2006.

Limitations:

- Questions only asked of Oxford County residents 18 years of age or over.
- Telephone survey only administered in English.

Notes:

┆ = 95% confidence intervals. If this survey was repeatedly conducted, we can expect the results to fall within this band 19 out of 20 times.

Produced by Oxford County, Public Health & Emergency Services Department. For more information, please contact Deborah Carr at 519-539-9800 or dcarr@county.oxford.on.ca.